

TRANSLATION TEST

Imagine taking the penknife of Jehoiakim and cutting out portions of God's Word! What? Who would dare to do that (besides Jehoiakim, see Jeremiah 36:21-32)? Not everyone has the same respect for the Word (or Words) of the Living God. So, for the purpose of making this point, here is a short list of some places in the New Testament where that very thing has happened. Words, phrases, verses, and passages marked in a bold strikethrough line have been removed from or changed in certain manuscripts and hence many popular modern translations. If anything, this will raise your awareness and establish the fact that much of God's Word has been tampered with. Please, I challenge you; it will be well worth your time to look at different translations to see how they compare to the following test. For people who love the Word of God, this will either break your heart or aggravate you or both. Do all translations have all of the very Words of God? The obvious answer is: NO!

<input type="checkbox"/>	5:7	Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us :

<input type="checkbox"/>	3:17	And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ , the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.
<input type="checkbox"/>	4:7	Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ .
<input type="checkbox"/>	5:12	I would they were even cut off which trouble you.
