

Windows Vista 5-6

1. Which Windows Vista icons can be added to the desktop with an option in the Desktop Icon Settings dialog box? ____
2. Notebook computers come with ____ monitors.
3. Monitor ____ refers to the clarity of the text and images on your screen.
4. Screen savers stop executing when you press a key on the keyboard or move the ____.
5. A dim version of an image permanently etched on a computer monitor after the image has been displayed for a long time is called ____.
6. Changing a color's ____ determines how light or dark the color appears.
7. Changes to the way Windows Vista displays data in different countries are made in the ____ dialog box.
8. Windows Vista provides ____ preset color options.
9. You can delete all the files associated with a specific user account in the ____ window.
10. You can use a different user account without logging off the computer by clicking the arrow to the right of the Lock this computer button on the Start menu and then clicking the ____ command on the shortcut menu.
11. If you have ____ privileges, you can create a new user account.
12. To improve the visibility of the mouse as it moves across the desktop, you can display a pointer ____.
13. A time interval, called the ____ speed, determines whether Windows Vista recognizes when a mouse button is clicked twice in rapid succession instead of two single clicks.
14. ____ refers to the default action that occurs when media and devices are inserted into your computer.
15. A ____ printer is connected directly to a computer.
16. The ____ allows you to display a list of the hardware devices installed on your computer.
17. The ____ power plan, as shown in the accompanying figure, provides full performance when you are actively using the computer, and saves power when your computer is inactive.
18. A summary of system information can be viewed in the ____ window, as shown in the accompanying figure.
19. You can move from link to link in the Personalization window by pressing the ____ key.
20. Which link in the Control Panel window displays options as a series of icons that can be double-clicked? ____
21. A(n) ____ account has full control over the computer and its operating system.
22. You can click an option on the ____ tab in the Folder Options dialog box to have each folder open in its own window.
23. ____ options allow you to specify how you open and work with icons, windows, folders, and files on the desktop.
24. The ____ displays the time and also can contain shortcuts that provide quick access to programs which run in the background on your computer.
25. To use the Address toolbar to search for and display a Web page, you must type the page's ____ in the Address box.
26. Which of the following paths entered in the Address box on the Address toolbar is the correct path to the Windows folder, when the folder is stored on the C drive? ____
27. A(n) ____ is the means of navigating to a specific location on a computer.
28. An unlocked taskbar displays ____ vertical lines or bars.
29. ____ the taskbar prevents the taskbar from being moved to another location.
30. When customizing the Windows Vista desktop, you can modify the ____.

True/False

31. When installing software, take care to install software that is compatible with your operating system.
32. If you click a mouse button twice, and the second click does not fall within the double-click time interval, Windows Vista treats the action as two single-clicks, not a double-click.
33. The right mouse button is the secondary button, which performs the aptly named right-clicking and right-dragging actions.
34. Once you apply an AutoPlay setting, you cannot revert to the original setting.
35. Windows Vista allows you to customize the default actions that occur when media and devices are inserted into your computer.
36. New printers generally support the Plug and Play standard.
37. It is a good idea to review the updates installed on your computer by reviewing the update history.
38. Windows Update is turned on by default when Windows Vista is installed.
39. Technology works best when it supports our lifestyles, providing the tools we need to accomplish the tasks set before us.
40. You can resize the Quick Launch toolbar on the taskbar by dragging the dotted vertical bar on the right side of the toolbar to the left or right.
41. You can hide the taskbar so that only the top edge is visible at the bottom of the desktop.
42. You can reposition a locked taskbar.
43. By default, the taskbar is locked into position at the TOP of the desktop.
44. You cannot change the icon image for the Recycle Bin or other Windows Vista desktop icons.
45. The recommended resolution for a computer monitor depends on the display size.
46. Another way to personalize your computer is to adjust the display settings for your monitor.
47. A Windows Vista desktop theme contains graphical elements but not sounds.
48. Everyone must always follow the exact same preferences when setting up their Windows Vista desktop.
49. Every object has properties, which are its defining characteristics.
50. One of the best ways to improve your productivity on the computer is to personalize your work environment.