Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT עיצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצרות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצרות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT עיצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH תווך - Hebrew Bible).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT עיצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH תורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

Numbers 15:37-41, Deuteronomy 22:12. G-d commanded Moses for the Children of Israel to put "fringes" on the four corners of their garments. The Hebrew word is TZITZIT ציצית which has a numerical value of 600. The tassels have 5 knots and 8 cords which equals 13. 613 is the number of MITZVOT מצוות (commandments) found in the TORAH חורה (the first 5 books of the TANAK).

1

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours

The long cord is called the shamash (servant) which wraps all of the others. The number of shamash spirals between the knots is also interesting. Various Traditions signify one of the Names of G-d (YHVH) differently:

Ashkenazi: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema) Sephardic: 10-5-6-5 (LORD)

Hasidic: 7-8-11-13 (LORD is one, from the Shema)

Karaite: various braids, twists, "chains"

For holy land related products, free resources, or more information, see: www.holywordcafe.com/tours